“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Murray. Although I did not know her personally, the loss of a loved one is definitely a trying time for all. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. At John 5:28, 29 we read: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you hope and peace of mind!

“ As a parent of a Holy Trinity 6th grader, I spent over 2 months daily in the Holy Trinity library in the fall of 2013. I got to know Mrs. Murray and admired her dedication and enthusiasm for every detail related to the library. She was always very warm and welcoming to me and for that I will always remember her fondly. I pray for peace for her husband and family.

“ I will always remember Kathleen for the beautiful, gentle soul she was and cherish our times together. A picture of her in a big floppy hat, happily tending to her gardens will forever be etched upon my mind. Wishing for peace and healing for Fred and the family during this difficult time.

“ My heart goes out to the family of Kathleen. I worked as a volunteer in the Holy Trinity Library with Kathleen a few years ago. It was a privilege to get to know her and assist her with the library. She was kind, loving and patient and always took time out to give me a particular job but also to ask how I was doing that day. May Kathleen's soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
