That's when they joined Fair View United Methodist Church in Mt. Mourne.

Kathleen was hard working and enjoyed canning the vegetables they grew in their garden. Even after being widowed in 1974 she found a way to have a small garden so she could can the vegetables. She worked at Burlington Mills for many years and when she retired, she stayed busy sewing, doing alterations, taking care of other in their homes, and even moved one lady into her home to take care of her. She also babysat her grandchildren and then her great grandchildren. After 1974 she and her friends enjoyed their "girls-night-out" Friday nights for many years.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Calvin Coolidge Stowe; sister, Ruby; brother, Robert, Harold, and Hubert.

She is survived by her son, Wayne Stowe and wife, Vickey, daughter, Joan Hoover and husband, Jim; grandchildren, Janus Elliott and husband, Tim, Sara Cline and husband, Jerry, Sunny Cooke and husband, Darin, Donnie Hudspeth and wife, Susan; great grandchildren, Kelsey Crabtree and husband, Rusty, Mia Elliott, Ella and Lily Hudspeth, Jake Cline, Clay and Carter Cooke; brother, Jesse and wife, Nell; and sister, Shannon; and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Wayne and family and Joan and family,
Just wanted to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. I remember both your Mother and Daddy growing up. WE were so very fortunate to have the parents we did. I am sure you have so many "fond memories" as my Daddy would say.

Sincerely,
Jane Davis Garcia
