“ Not a day goes by that your not on my mind. I miss you so much. I don't know how many times I wanted to pick up the phone to call you and share something that's happened in my life that day..of course you already knew I'm sure. Even now with you being gone I know you are always looking out for all of us. That's just how you were, always putting us first. I love you mom..your Boo

“ Mom, I can tell this will never get any easier. I lay awake at night thinking of you and picture that warm sweet smile and laughter. I wait for my phone to ring to hear that bubbly voice of an angel answer, "hey baby girl! How are ya?" I know your in a better place and you no longer suffer with pain, and that gives me piece, yet I wasn't ready to let go of our vacations and trips together, our laughter and talks and even our hugs and tears. That final hug you gave me with all your strength you had left and to hear you say, " it's going to be ok. I love you" is what helps get me through the days of tears. I love you mom and I miss you my beautiful sunshine.. Watch over me always my sweet sweet Angel!

“ I will truly miss this one of a kind lady. She was so very kind to everyone whom she came into contact with. My fondest memories as a child were the times I spent with her and her children going to the beach, playing with Tracey, Lisa and Johnathan, having sleepovers at her home and hearing her warm laughter. She was always patient, kind and loving just to name a few of her greatest qualities. I will miss her dearly. My condolences to her children, friends and extended family. Jackie Starnes Hancock

“ I can't even begin to tell you how much I miss you. Thank you mom for being such a wonderful mother. You are the perfect example of what a Christian really is. I have never known anyone to be so giving, loving and positive as you. You have always sacrificed and put others needs before your own. I look and listen to the hundreds of people who's lives you have touched with your generosity and beautiful smile and it reminds me of just how lucky I was to be one of your children. Thank you for always guiding me to be the best I can be. I love you mom
