

Kay Frances Edmiston

February 1, 1947 - February 21, 2021

Kay Frances Taylor Edmiston, 74, of Statesville, passed away on Sunday, February 21, 2021, at her residence. Born February 1, 1947, in Salisbury, NC, she was a daughter of the late Adam O'Neal Taylor and Allie Goodman Taylor. Mrs. Edmiston was a retired Secretary for NC Vocational Rehabilitation after 30 years of service. After retirement, Mrs. Edmiston took great joy in caring for her grandchildren. She also enjoyed reading, cooking, baking, sewing and cross stitch. She was a member of Prospect Presbyterian Church, Mooresville. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by a sister, Sue Taylor Eagle and a brother, Jerry Taylor. Mrs. Edmiston is survived by her husband, Dan L. Edmiston; children, Jack Edmiston, of Troutman and Karen Edmiston Cornett (Nick), of Statesville; brother, Mike Taylor, of Salisbury; sister, Phoebe Taylor Nunn (Marvin), of Salisbury; grandchildren, Samuel and Charleston Cornett; brother-in-law, Glen Eagle, of Salisbury; brother-in-law, Bob Edmiston (Mary Beth), of Mt. Ulla and numerous nieces and nephews. A graveside service will be held at 1 PM, Wednesday, February 24, 2021, at Prospect Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Mooresville, with Rev. Will Gipe officiating. The family is asking that everyone please practice social distancing and wear mask.

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one, I worked with Kay for years at Vocational Rehabilitation. She was always a pleasure to work with and a fine lady who got along with everyone. I hope that good memories will be of some comfort to you during this difficult time. May God Bless.
