“ I am so sorry for your loss. Kay has been a part of the Figaros' lives for decades, and we are grateful to have known her. Many hours of good conversation and friendship took place with her in All About Hair. May the Lord bring you much comfort and many good memories to help you through the days ahead. She truly loved you, Michael and Mark, and her grandkids as well - no doubt about that - and every tear you shed is a testimony to the life she lived and to the lady she was. "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal." 2 Corinthians 4:17-18

“ Kaye took care of the hair of me and my late wife for several years. I found her to be an especially caring person and will be missed by all who knew her.
