“ Deann, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. She was such a loving and kind person. I remember her well as one of my good parents when I taught you. May God bless you and give you and your family peace and comfort in the days ahead. In sympathy, Kay Edmonds

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Blackwelder. Although I did not know her personally, I’ve experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. We can be confident in that beautiful and exciting promise, and may it bring you hope and peace!
