“ I thank God for Kelly. He was a good brother. He loves Jesus and wanted everyone to have a vital relationship with God. He was a good example, encourager and teacher of living for Christ. He would want everyone to know about the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ—which is that every person has sinned and so we are separated from God (Romans 3:23) and that the result of that is death (Romans 6:23). The Good News is that God wants to fix that so He made a way for us to restore our relationship with Him. He did this when Jesus came to earth and allowed himself to die on the cross as a sacrifice to pay for our sins and then He rose up from the dead victorious over sin, hell, death and the grave on our behalf. We can't do anything to earn this free gift of salvation. We need to confess with our mouth that Jesus is Lord (tell others) and to believe in our heart that God has raise Him from the dead then you will be saved (Romans 10:9,10). This will allow you to have a relationship with God and have life after death. You need to be around other Christian believers to learn and to grow spiritually and be encouraged so become a part of a Christian church who believes that Jesus came in the flesh, died for our sins and was raised from the dead. That he is the Christ/Messiah. Your church needs to be one who teaches the Bible. (I attend Lake City Church in Mooresville/ www.LakeCityChurch.org). If you still have questions then keep learning about Jesus and ask questions. Pray (have conversations with God), read the Bible. May God bless you!

“ It was an honor and blessing to serve with Kelly at First AG in Mooresville, when we were both in our 20s. He was a wonderful youth pastor and a good friend. His legacy as a minister and a family man will on forever in the lives of others, just as he will live forever with the Lord. Memory from Dr. Tim Moose

“ Kelly is gone from us, but he is not dead. He lives in heaven and he has no more dread. His heart is happy and his spirit is light. He waits for Sheila and all his family and friends. I know he is having a great reunion with his mom, dad and little brother and all those who have gone on ahead. We'll be there soon! We love you Kelly.
