“ I met Ken in our sophomore year of high school through a mutual friend. We hit it off as a couple of easy-going, everybody's a friend kind of guys. He was interested in motorcycles back then, as I believe his brother, Mark, had a Harley. I had a dirt bike then and taught Ken the basics of riding. After graduating high school we both bought our first street bike, a Kawasaki 650. We had a great time riding these, good times rolled. We went down different paths. Me to college, while Ken started driving trucks. About 15 years later, I'm walking through the pits of Road America in Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin for an Indy car race, when I hear someone yell my name. It was Ken. He invited us, my son, his friend and his friends Dad, to come check out the rig he was driving and super proud of. I let him know how cool that was. Life went on for both of us and upon the creation of Facebook, Ken connected with my wife Jody (I'm not on Facebook). They followed each other and when we headed to South Carolina last summer for a vacation, I said see if Ken will be around, I really want to catch up with him again. He invited us to Mooresville. We met up at Lori's and his house. Met his daughter, Chayne, and toured his garage holding his Harley and collection of NASCAR memorabilia. Super exciting time for Ken and me. It was great to see and share a few beers with my old friend of 40 plus years. I'll continue to share and celebrate these good memories of Ken with all.

My condolences to the lost of a fine husband, friend, son, brother and friend.
