“ I met Kenny when I married his brother Jimmy. You will never find anyone as kind & loving as Kenny. He had such a big heart & alot of people took advantage of Kenny. Over the years we had alot of conversations about this & other things that were important to Kenny. He was a loving son who took care of his mother Eunice until she passed away. He was a rare gem & there will never be another more gentle loving person. He will be missed by the remaining members of his family & others who truly loved & cared about him. I truly believe that Kenny is in the loving arms of Jesus & that heaven welcomed him home.
