“ We are so moved and saddened by your loss. Words are woefully inadequate at a time like this...no one can truly understand or deal with the loss of a child. We did not know your son, but we do hope his memory will bring you through this.

I kept Kenton when he was a baby when Cindy worked. He was the happiest baby. Kenton always smiled, I truly hope Cindy will enjoy the photos my sister and I had made of him because he sure was so photogenic and a pleasure to keep. I will always remember him with love.

My heart hurts for you and your family. I loved little baby Kenton 🥹 and think he was so very sweet . He was such a happy baby, smiling all the time with those long blonde curls. I am not suprised to see he went on to be adventurous in life, also helping others. He had a sweet disposition early on that kept growing. God Bless you all.

“ My heart is so broken and sad over the loss of Kenton, he was so special to me. I have been a very close friend to this family since he was just a little toddler running around. I watched him go through life figuring out which direction he wanted to go, and he definitely succeeded. So proud of him, there is no doubt he would of went much further to achieve everything his heart desired. I will miss you greatly and I will always be here for your mom in every way I possible can. Cindy, Eddie, and Steve, my love, heart, and prayers are with you always.
