

Kevin Bert Stewart

September 22, 1976 - January 19, 2026

Kevin Bert Stewart, 49, Salisbury, NC passed away on Monday, January 19, 2026.

He was born September 22, 1976 to Craig Stewart and Alice Schweizer. Knowing Kevin was to know he did everything his way. He was one of a kind and it felt as if he was the main character in the movie of life. He was the type of person to help someone even if it put him in a bind. It brought him happiness, making others feel better. Kevin was a very intelligent person who could work on anything. He prided himself in teaching his children how to be self-sufficient and fix all the broken things. In recent years he taught himself to play the drums and spent hours listening to music and banging out tunes. His biggest accomplishment of his life was his 3 children who adored their father.

He is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents Kenneth Stewart and Jelene Rauch, his brothers Johnny Stewart and Robbie Stewart, his aunt Lynn Myers and his uncle Kenny Stewart.

Kevin's family will receive friends on Saturday, March 14 from 10:00-11:00 AM with a service following at 11:00 AM at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the family of Mr. Stewart. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ I was very sorry to hear about the passing of Kevin. I had the privilege of working with Kevin for quite a while, starting back in the mid-90s at Freightliner, he was truly one of a kind.

Kevin was a great coworker and an even better person to be around. I always said he wasn't meant to be cooped up in a factory he probably should have owned his own business. When something needed to get done, Kevin was the guy. He was never afraid to jump in, lend a hand, and do whatever it took to get the job done.

One of the things I admired most about Kevin was that if he was thinking it, he'd say it and that honesty led to a lot of laughs over the years. We shared many good ones. I'll never forget how he once gave himself the title "The OE Administrator," took over an empty office, and rode around work on a three wheel bicycle with a sign that said "OE Administrator". That was pure Kevin.

The attached pic is something he had taped to his desk for a while, "The Fan man" when he worked the engine line.

Kevin was a great guy, and he will be missed by everyone who knew him. My thoughts and deepest condolences are with his family and loved ones during this difficult time.

Him taking over the office is the most him thing I have ever heard haha. Thank you for sharing

Chris Stewart - January 23 at 05:31 PM

Hey Keith - thank you for sharing this. I remember when the Salisbury Post printed this article and we got tons of calls from people saying Kevin made the news LOL. I also remember you, Scottie and Kevin coming to my office while on a work field trip and you guys asking me how much coffee he drank in the mornings before work. He was not a coffee drinker just naturally hyped up. He loved being the "OE Administrator" :)

My son was very very intelligent maybe too until it's you know he could fix anything do anything he put his head too he was a great great guy he was my baby boy I loved him with all my heart all my soul all my being I can't tell you how much it hurts it feels like somebody just reached in and grabbed my heart out of my body and throw it away but what God's help will make it that's for sure when God's help I love my family I love each and every one of you that's for sure God help us all

I feel like this world has been robbed of an amazing person. Even though I only had the privilege of knowing Kevin for a few months, he became one of the best friends I've ever had. My heart is in a million pieces now that he is gone. So funny, thoughtful, caring, such a good listener, heart of gold. He was one of the few rare good ones. I so wish I could have known him longer. The only comfort I have in him being gone is that he is finally at peace. I pray he is feeling all those wonderful qualities he possessed for himself now. I'm so grateful I got to unexpectedly see him on the 6th and be present for his good news that day and get those last few hugs. Those hugs were the best because you always knew they were genuine. The world is a dimmer place without his presence.

“ Our desks were face to face in our quality office and we had many great conversations about music, panning for gold, the outdoors, and we probably went down one too many rabbit holes when it came to conspiracy theories--which always ended up being a fun conversation. He did a great job as a quality tech and did a very thorough job when it came to resolving quality issues, whether it was from a supplier or internal. He was always proud to talk about his kids and what was going on in their lives and share it with me. We'd talk about getting together someday and play music or go panning for gold in the creek. His family is in my thoughts and prayers, and the thoughts and prayers of those of us that I work with as well. He will be missed at work. God Bless.

Praying for peace and comfort for the Stewart Family and Friends. May you all find comfort in cherished memories. I worked with Kevin these past 3 years and he contributed so much to our Quality group and the plant. Kevin was one to step in and help whenever it was needed, willing to train others, always looking for ways to improve our workplace. He is greatly missed. He was humble and made it a point to keep track of whomever contributed to the projects that he worked on so that the team took the credit and not himself. One to learn from.

Kevin and I worked together at Penske Racing. All his coworkers remembered his first day a work was different We were together all the time. He could fix anything, maybe a different way but fixed. We talked a lot and I think we could tell each other anything. He was a good friend. The day my father died, Kevin meet me in the hall and gave me a big hug. I cry everytime I think about it. He really loved his kids and was so proud of them. Kevin would tell me all about what they were doing. Kevin's last employer was the same one I started with, the old clark plants in Statesville. I'm so sorry for your loss. I know you will miss him. Prayers to the whole family. God bless you all.

This is awesome, thank you so much for sharing!

Chris Stewart - January 23 at 06:49 PM

I started working at Penske Racing. Kevin took me under his wing because we were working in a facilities and they showed me how to do a lot of things. My specialty was laying tile and when I first started, he used to always call me high low cause one side of the tile was high and one side was low. But with his experience, he helped me get better over the time. Thank you for all the things you showed me Kevin you will be missed.

tony - January 25 at 06:36 AM

Thank you Tony for sharing! I never understood how he knew how to do some many things when he never went to school for any of it. I think he was just very good at breaking things down in his head and just confidence in himself

Chris Stewart - January 25 at 04:43 PM

Tony - Chaz wanted to be sure that you knew about Kevin. I ask Jeff and Scott to be sure you knew. So special to hear the stories everyone has shared.
