“ Been many years ago, but my best memories with Larry was back during Momma's Table times. Downtown Mooresville, they had the best restraurant and gospel singing anywhere. A bunch of us worked each night getting everything ready for the crowds, free of course so we could eat Brenda's cooking and then enjoy the different groups they had come in to sing. We worked hard, laughed so hard, eat so much and loved each other like one big family. Larry was one of a kind, so funny, would do anything for you, loved his family and most of all loved his bride. I wouldn't take anything for those memories
