“ Some of my favorite memories are staying with Mamaw Polly and Papaw Jack in the summer when I was a kid. I just remember so much warmth in that home with everybody coming and going and her making everyone feel so welcome. I remember her sitting and talking in the kitchen with my parents and aunts, making so many sandwiches for all the cousins, showing me the right way to put vanilla wafers in pudding, and so many laughs and gatherings on that back porch. I wish I got to spend more time with her. She will be so missed.

“ When I think of Polly, I remember her hands, her busy, hard working, comforting hands, so often doing something for the love and care of someone else. Now may God hold her in the palm of His hand.
