“ We first met Lauren through being neighbors when her and Mason lived in our apartment complex. . The dog we have today would never have been in our family if it wasn't for Lauren. She knew when we lost our dachshund named Cooper that we were heartbroken. But then call from Lauren came that she knew of sweet little dog that was in need of home. And now Lilly is our fur baby thanks to Lauren. She was also a big help in getting accommodations when our family visited from out of town. We will also be grateful for being able to have shared her friendship.

“ Only meet Lauren once when she connected with my sister and brother-in-law. They had recently lost their beloved dog Cooper and Lauren found them another dog who they immediately fell in love with. That showed me what a kind and big hearted person she was. I'm sure she will be missed by many. My condolences to all of her family and friends.
