“ To the family

May you find comfort from friends and the God of all Comfort who comforts us in all our trials. (2Cor. 1:4) May he help you to endure and cope with the loss of your dear loved one. May you continue to keep Linda's memory warm in your hearts until you see her happy and healthy again.

“ Fred and Angie, we cannot express the feelings we have after hearing of your wife, mother and our friend passing. While we will miss her we will always remember the great times we all spent together in Memphis for many years as well as in Mooresville creating memories that we will take with us when God calls us home. The times we spent together could simply never be bought. It was all priceless and orchestrated by Gods love for us.

Please keep this in mind my friends, God's word tells us in 2 Peter 3:8 King James Version (KJV)

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. With this in mind, it will only be a short moment in time before you will be together again.

Our prayers will be with you and for you to rest in the peace, joy and comfort of God and know he is the lover of our souls and he will rejoin you again with Linda at the marriage supper of the Lamb.

We love Y'all.

Be Blessed our dear friends.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Fred, Angie and the rest of the family now and in the hard days ahead. Linda was a good friend and I am so thankful for the many years of friendship that we had. I always knew I could call her for advice or just to talk anytime. She was a wonderful, sweet lady and she will always be missed. I love you all, Terry Spurlin

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you Angie as you go through this most difficult time. Your mom was a very sweet woman and I know how close you two were. After losing my Daddy 8 years ago, I know there is no greater loss one could go through. I love you, Kathy Sproul Cornett
