“ Lin and I worked together when she lived in GA. We had our children at the same time and enjoyed watching them grow into toddlers. Our times together with the kids bonded us on this earth. And, our love for Christ bonded us eternally. Lin, I know you are enjoying Heaven now with Jesus and I will see you soon. You touched my life here on earth like no one else has.

“ *The Urban Family of Wilmington NC has sweet memories of days past. I remember when two crazy girls found each other and bonded together. Two mothers prayed and believed as Ecclesiastes says was a time to hold on and a time to let go; a time to shut up and then to speak up. We did not do it perfect but in Gods perfect time he made something beautiful with our two daughters. Both Lin and I witnessed answers to prayer and God’s tender guidance in a time of needed mending. So - those memories remain precious - those times of tears have brought times of Joy . Our Savior the Lord Jesus Christ invaded our hearts with his presence and gave us an infusion of Grace. That Grace has now taken her to Glory!
It is now a Time of Peace to Embrace the Goodness Of God and the Past Journey I had with a special friend and mother of a special daughter.
Our sympathy and prayers to all of the family in this hour. May the Lord Bless you all and give you strength, courage and peace!
