“ My Lisa. I miss your phone calls already. Lots of texting went on before you passed. The one thing that was mentioned in the service was how you enjoyed writing cards, well I have many throughout the years . And those beautiful big gourmet cookies that you had done in a basket. You were so thoughtful and you made me feel so special. You are one amazing lady. You spoke about Lee making ‘Beef Wellington’ for the holidays. I still dont believe that you are not here , but for me you are in my heart forever. Its so unbelievable that you passed on my daughters birthday. I know that you will always be looking down on us from above in heaven and to make sure that we are safe and loved and hold on to our memories. I wish I saw you in person before you left us . I do pray everyday that now you are not suffering. You fought hard . You taught me so many things about life . How never to take it for granted. Your kind words were so amazing to me . Well I now say Goodbye , but not really a goodbye because I will see you again in heaven. I will do your nails like we use to and your toes. Hair, well thats a beginning for me as you were so proud of me in everything. You always put me on a pedestal just like my mother did. Oh my Lisa I could keep going my love. Love you to the moon and back . Love you my Lisa , Debra Poulicakos

“ My deepest sympathies to Lisa’s family. May God bless you Lisa. I was so sad to learn of your passing. I cant believe that you are gone. So many years that we git to share before you moved . Painting your red wall and taking my girl on rides for errands that needed to be done. I have so many memories that theres not enough room to write . You always had such nice things to say even on your worst days. My daughter was born on your day of departure . Omg Lisa I wish that I visited you before you left us. I will forever hold on to our memories. So far back that I was doing your nails in the ‘90’s’ . I googled how long that it would take me to drive to you (only 13 hours) . Im writing a book because thats what we did back and forth. I will never forget you Lisa, I still hold on to all your beautiful cards that you’ve sent me. May you rest Lisa in the arms of the Angels. I will see you someday. May heavens gates open and fly my Lisa , fly and watch over all your loved ones . I send my love to Lee, you left too soon. I love you Lisa to the Moon and back . Rest now and be at peace.
Love you ❤️👍
