“ Words can't express what Lisa was to me. Not only a co-worker, not only a friend. But she was a close friend. I have 3 friends that I consider close friends and Lisa was one of them. I could talk to her and Teresa about things that I could not talk to others about. Lisa was always understanding and she would always have advice for me...even if it was something I did not want to hear. She was as honest with everyone and she always spoke the truth. And that is why her loss in my life is deep but her wonderful smile will keep my heart warm. The last thing she said to me as we hugged was you know I love you. And I did know that she loved me and I love her just as much. I will keep you in my heart,Lisa, til we meet again

“ Even though I hadn't seen Lisa in a very long time, some of my best childhood memories include her. For example, sitting on Grannie Ferrell's front porch playing 45 rpm records on a portable record player. The song Rockin' Robin always comes to mind. I was so happy for her when she and Timmy met and fell in love. I will always miss that smile. I am so very sorry she has passed.
