Lonnie was such a pleasure to chat with. I met him at work even though he was married to a friend I've known for years. We didn't get to work together much but he always had a smile and a friendly conversation. He loved his family and that was usually the most of our conversation. He was always bragging on one kid or another if not all. He told me many times how blessed he was to have you all. My prayers for you are that you always find the great memories you had with your dad/husband/ grandpa and that you know how much you meant to him. RIP Lonnie

“ I have always felt Lon was more than a son than a cousin, soon as he got out of the Navy he came to live with us for some time. He at times cooked and was excellent at it, always had funny and encouraging stories to share. Lon is was and all around wonderful person and will be missed and love, I pray he is sitting with my husband in heaven chatting as they used to about the Lord. Carry on Lon till we join you one day. Love and miss you, Carolyn Curran-Vasseur

I worked with Lonnie, he was a great guy, he would do anything to help someone out and he was the type you could always talk to him and not worry about him going and telling everyone. I'll miss him... RIP my friend
