

Lori Ann Jarrell

September 28, 1963 - November 19, 2021

Lori Ann Dempsey Jarrell, 58, of Mooresville, passed away on Friday, November 19, 2021, at Lake Norman Regional Medical Center.

Lori was born on September 28, 1963, in Rome, Georgia to Jesse and Dorothy Fortenberry Dempsey. She was a member of Kappa Delta sorority while attending University of West Georgia in Carrollton. Upon graduation, she was employed as an engineer for Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company in Rome until her health required her to retire. She will be remembered as a kind and loving person. Lori made you feel as if you were the most important person in the room. Although Lori had faced many challenges during her life, she overcame each one with determination and belief that God was in control. Her legacy lives on in the better parts of all of us and the impact she made on everyone. Never meeting a stranger, she became an "adopted" mom to many of Taylor's friends and was loved by all who knew her. Lori loved her family and her focus was to always care for them. Flowers, gardening, and animals were passions of hers. In addition, Lori used her own experience with diabetes to teach and share her experience at a camp for children with diabetes.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband of 24 years Randall Jarrell of Mooresville and daughter Taylor DeNease Jarrell of Charlotte. In addition, she leaves behind cousins Ed Fortenberry, Ronnie Fortenberry, Pam Fortenberry, Kim Fortenberry and Joe Fortenberry of Rome, Georgia; Robert and Terri Jarrell of Richmond Hill, Georgia; two nieces; as well as numerous uncles, aunts, and cousins.

The family will receive friends from 6 - 8 PM, Friday, June 10 at Daniels Funeral Home, Rome, GA. A graveside service will be held at 11 AM, Saturday, June 11 at Sunset Hill Memorial Gardens, Rome, GA.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to American Kidney Foundation, American Diabetes Foundation or LifeShare of the Carolinas. Consider becoming a living organ donor.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home and Crematory, Mooresville is proudly serving the Jarrell family.

“Lori was one of my dearest friends throughout our elementary and high school years. Although we grew apart after high school, I would have loved to have known her as an adult. Her tender heart, quick wit, and sense of adventure were highlights of my youth. I've just learned of her passing, but still extend my sympathy to her family and close friends.

“Lori was one of the most beautiful people I've ever known. She always made me feel so important and cared for whenever we spoke. I can't imagine the void left in your lives, Randy and Taylor. My heart goes out to both of you. I hope you can find even the smallest amount of comfort in knowing that she left behind quite a legacy of love! With love and prayers, Jeri
