“ Dear Uncle Lou,
I was deeply saddened to hear of your death from your brother Joe. I will always keep your memory close to my heart. I will remember the good time we shared together a few years ago of the boat ride with you and Aunt Jane. You will be sorely missed! I also remember your generosity of sending a pair of your wooden boots you hand carved to me. I have them displayed on my bookcase. You did beautiful work.
Say hello to Aunt Jane when you see her in heaven. I miss her terribly. You both were beautiful people.

Love always,
Vivian

“ Dad,
I will always remember when you & mom made the big doll for me - also will remember the time you went out in the snow & started making a snow woman (though I never heard of a snow woman before) Once it was done, you had me stand by it & take a picture with me next to it. I didn't like it but you thought that was funny.

When you took me out to learn to drive you were very patient with me compared to mom. You always made me laugh about things you used to do. I will miss you & mom but you will be there waiting on me to come up to see you.

I bet Molly was happy to see you & mom together again when you came up there. I bet you gave mom a big hug & kiss & told her you loved her & could not bear to be without her. I will love both you & mom always & I will definately see you both again. Love you both very much!! Love Heidi Lynn “Poppy, you will be missed by so many of us. I remember when I was 13 years old and you were teaching me how to drive. Always calm and patient with me. You'd say Go slow and steady Katiebug. I remember driving down the dirt road and trying to back up the very first time, had the brakes on and slammed on the gas. Those tires on your old truck just spun and spun, spitting up dirt and rocks all over while you were just laughing away at the fear in my eyes. I thought I was going to run into the house but you were there and showed me how. You taught me to never fear the unknown and face it with a strong face. Poppy you were my rock, you were everyone's rock. Even though you never said much we all knew you cared. You were the strong silent type who only said what needed to be said when it needed to be said. I will treasure the things that you taught me and the time I got to spend with you. Forever in my heart. I will see you again Poppy. Be at rest now with the love of your life. And always remember, drive slow and steady Poppy. I love you.

“Some of my fondest memories were driving up from the South Bronx to Walkkill and playing with my cousins in the tree house Uncle Louis had built. There was snow mobiling in the winter and the river in the summer. And the family softball games at Grandpa Kraus's house were epic. The garden and country fresh foods were delicious. I will surely treasure these memories.

“ I was saddened to here of your loss. I remember his glass insulator collection, his geese. I have a dog he carved in my office. I think of him each time I look at it almost daily. His legacy will live on with his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. I am one

Uncle Louie;

I was so sorry to hear about your passing; it's especially hard for my Dad and mom. In many ways you and my dad were alike; although my dad did more talking. However; the last time I was able to visit with you and Aunt Jane was especially meaningful. I felt like all those times we didn't speak – we were able to make up for it in that visit.

It was then, I realized you spoke when you had something to say, and it was meaningful. I truly enjoyed the time walking with you through your garage and seeing all your collections, wood carvings, old bottles, etc. (as I remember going with you and my dad to Borden's to search for old bottles – at the time it didn't make sense) – but then seeing your collection – all the "light bulbs" lite up.

I know growing up – you were always there to help my parents and at times, I remember you at Grandma's house helping her. I believe you spoke with your actions and not your words – this to me was your strength and is something I will never forget!

I hope that my words may speak also for my parents – who will also miss you very much. As my mom stated, our blessing is you are now with Aunt Jane and once again happy and whole.

Love Donald
