“ Louise was a very sweet lady. I always enjoyed talking with her at church. She and her twin sister Lucille made my wedding cake 38 years ago. It was so beautiful. They both served the cake at my wedding reception. May God comfort the family. My prayers are will all of you. God Bless and know Louise is in the presence of the Lord. She and Harold are reunited. ❤️

“ I have been Mrs. Christy's mail lady for quit a few years now. She always had a smile on her face and around Christmas time a bag of homemade cookies in her hand. If she didn't have them ready when I got there she had me to come in while she got me some. I'm going to miss her very much!! Love you!! Debbie
