“ Luann and I dated in middle school. She was always a special person. We attended the same church. I remember her calling me after my mother passed in 2004 even though we hadn't been in touch for years. We stayed in touch on Facebook. She reached out again when my wife passed away last year. To your family, you had a special wife, mother grandmother, and sister. She will surely be missed. Sending many thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ I don't remember completely how I came in possession of one of my precious childhood memories, but Luann made me a woolen thread pillow that was so special then and is truly special now. She made a difference in my life.

“ Luann was one of my best friends. We've known and loved each other for years. We talked every week and texted almost daily. She was an extremely smart individual with a big heart. We made a point to go on mini vacations somewhere every year. Time together was a high priority on both our lists. She was the first person I called when I was happy about something and the person I leaned on for advice when things weren't going so well. How will I ever replace such a friendship? Even though you are gone my friend, you will live on in my heart forever. I'm so blessed to have had you in our lives. Rest now and know you will be missed.
