“ I have so many wonderful memories of visits in Chula Vista. Lucia (or Mama Macsieb) always welcomes us with a warm smile. Weather it was a Weekend visits from USC or dropping off Christmas presents, there was always an invitation to come in and visit. One memory that sticks out was my visit to meet baby Megan. I was dropping by for a quick hello before meeting friends for diner. Two hours later, with a tummy full of yumminess, I met up with my friends happy to have spent a wonderful evening around the Macasieb table. She will live on in our hearts. ❤️

“ Lucia was a dear friend, sister in Christ, a generous and loving soul. Her happiness and kindness always brightened the choir each Sunday. I always felt at home in her presence. Her lack of pretentiousness was Christ like in every way. Her home was always open. Her table always available. She was much loved. She will be deeply missed. My condolences to the family. May she Rest In Peace and may her heavenly home be as welcoming as she was.

“ Sending our condolences from the Cordero Family....Remembering Aunt Lucia's visit up to Philadelphia where Uncle Danny brought her up to share in our extended family at Nina and Chris's Wedding. It was a pleasure to share with her and to know her during our limited family occasions. I attached some photos of the happy few days during the May 2015 visit. May God Bless our Aunt Lucia!
