“ Mrs Curtis was such a sweet lady. The firm I work at used to prepare her taxes-but I always loved talking to her about her family & her beautiful flowers. My sincere sympathy to the family-she was a genuinely lovely person.

“ So many memories, I would fall out of the backseat and run and jump into my Cousin Christine’s arms. Whether it was the Curtis Christmas Party or visiting over the summer, Aunt Lucille always had a warm smile and hug for her nieces, my sister, Anna, and I. I loved all the roosters in her kitchen and have fashioned my own adult kitchen with that theme. She introduced me to heirloom tomato “samich”es which I grew in my backyard this year. She taught me how to make blackberry cobbler and I have her recipe. I learned to love a shrimp bake with potatoes and corn from her. Mostly, she always made me feel welcome and part of the Curtis family which growing up out of state and being younger than many in the family was so special. She also helped me understand my heritage in a way that I could understand. I will miss her a great deal.

“ Uncle Donald and Aunt Lucille opened their home to my family countless times when we were growing up. My father was the only one of Uncle Donald's brothers that didn't live nearby so it was very special to have a welcoming place to stay after the long drive there. I remember loving the farm and the magnolia tree out front. Aunt Lucille's cooking was a special part of our stay as well. I will always remember sitting in the front room with Aunt Lucille during our visits. She holds a special place in my heart.
