“ Sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever .For more comfort please go to the website jw.org

“"MawMaw" will be dearly missed by our family, especially by our 8 month old son. Our son stays with Lucille's daughter, Debra, during the week and they visited "MawMaw" at least 2-3 times a week. She loved our son just as much as he loved her. It brings us great joy that he was able to bring her such happiness! - The Nowlin Family

“We send our deepest condolences to the Settlemyer family during your time of grief. Our prayers are that God will strengthen and keep you all in the palm of his hand. St. John 14:1 says Let not your heart be troubled, 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to cast our cares upon the Lord because he cares for us. We remember the beautiful smile Ms. Settlemyer would always greet us with during our brief visits or at the mail box. Rest in Peace!
