

Lynn Cranfill Armstrong

November 11, 1947 - March 19, 2024

Lynn Cranfill Armstrong, 76, passed away peacefully at her home in Mooresville on March 19, 2024. Born in Winston-Salem, NC 11/11/1947 to the late William T. (Tommy) Cranfill Sr. and Irene Motsinger Cranfill, Lynn graduated from RJ Reynolds High School and briefly attended UNC-Greensboro. She worked and later retired from RJ Reynolds Tobacco with over 30 years of service.

Lynn married her husband, Jack Armstrong in 1980, who was her best friend and loving partner for over 20 years. She was very social, had many lifelong friends and was an active member of the Winston Salem Olympic Club.

Lynn and Jack deeply loved shagging the night away. They were both honored with stars on the Myrtle Beach Boardwalk for The Shaggers Hall of Fame.

Always ready and the perfect hostess, the lake house was constantly filled with friends and family and she enjoyed every gathering, planned or spontaneous.

Lynn especially loved her family, always sending cards, calling to check on everyone and attending every milestone event. Her unfailing kindness and love of life was infectious, drawing people to her throughout her life. She had incredible wit and always spoke her mind, clearly and without hesitation. Her devotion to her grandson, nephews and nieces will always be treasured.

Lynn was preceded in death by her husband Jack, her parents and her brother, Robert L. Cranfill (Bobby). Surviving are her brother, W.T. "Bill" Cranfill Jr (Jenny), step daughter Debbie Lipinsky (Tripp) of Mooresville, grandson Cory Lipinsky, brother in law Dan Armstrong, sister in law Rosa Cranfill and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, March 30th, from 11-12:30 at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home located at 494 East Plaza Dr, Mooresville 28115. In lieu of flowers, the family requests you remember Lynn with love and laughter.

“ Lynn was one of my favorite people. I have seen the crowd at the Cherry Grove Yacht Club parted as Lynn and Jack jitterbugged and shagged the night away. They were fabulous! Lynn always had a kind word for everyone and made me feel important by the attention she gave me. She left this world a better place than she found it. I feel so fortunate to have known her and I pray that the good Lord will bless her and hold her closely for all eternity.
