“ Dear Moody,
I'm sorry for your lose. Madison, in the short time I got to drive her to and from school on the bus, mostly I took her home, she was always smiling and happy. I remember last school year every time we would cross the bridge on Perth Rd, she was looking for boats. When she would see one, her face would just light up. That smile will be missed. May God bless you all.

“ Amy, Steve and Bailey, you are in my prayers. I thank you for allowing me to care for Madison from the 1st day she came home! Madison taught me so much! She showed me that home is the only place to prosper! She thrived once she got home and I was blessed to watch her grow and become a roudy toddler! I hold dear the time we spent together, all the couch cuddles, the beautiful smiles, the bath times she soaked me! I witnessed twins bond despite limitations. Bailey, you are the best sister! I am forever grateful for the love you all showed me and the bond my little Madison and I had. I love you all!
