“ I am so sorry and can only imagine how heartbroken all of you must feel. We prayed so fervently for Malcolm to be healed this side of Heaven. With so many prayers not answered how we wanted, I can only say that I hope it will be some measure of consolation that God must have a very, very important purpose for healing Malcolm in Heaven instead of here and now, even if we can't fathom that purpose. I firmly believe God absolutely would have healed Malcolm in the way we wanted if it was the best thing for him and his loved ones. Since that didn't happen, God will use this to grow our faith in ways we cannot begin to imagine, right now. Nothing happens to anyone of faith that has not already passed through the filter of God's loving hands, absolutely nothing. The Bible says God collects every one of our tears. He knows the number of hairs on our head. His love is steadfast, never falters, never ends. God bless this family and bring them closer together than ever before, in His name.
