“ Bible verses (scripture) inspired Peggy Ann through whatever challenges she faced in life. Hopefully they provided her needed endurance and comfort during her very long illness. Often we look above for strength and comfort during our our time on earth. She will be sadly missed by her brothers, family and friends. She is home now with the one who gave her spirit unrequited love and comfort.

2 Timothy 4:7

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

The Peggy Ann I know was good, strong and kind.

Rest in Peace my lovely Sister.

“ I miss Peggy at our after-church Sunday lunch...I miss her fresh and unfiltered opinion of politics and religion. She was gracious even when I was equally blunt and we disagreed. She was straight-forward in a refreshing and delightful way. AJ: I'm sorry I can't be at the funeral but you are in my prayers and have my sympathy, All that knew Peggy will miss her - she was a very special, beautiful lady.

“ I am so sorry for your loss . had I known she took a turn for the worse I would have been there for her. I knew her for a very short time but we bonded a friendship I will value . she always brought a smile to my face and a song to my heart. most of the time. lol and I pray I did to her. God has her in his hands now and she is healthy , young and free. see you again someday my friend.

“ I had not seen Peggy for several years and was at Huntersville Oaks to admit my uncle and low and behold there was sweet Peggy in the office. She was so helpful and kind. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing and send sympathy to AJ and family.

“ When Ken went to work on the AC for Peggy, they would talk for hours about church and Jesus their Lord and Savior. I know Peggy is in heaven and her and Ken can talk for a long time now and she can breathe easy and Ken doesn't have to fix the AC.

While Ken is no longer needed to fix her AC, bet their talks were good therapy for them both.
