“ I attended church with Sue many years ago, and was blessed to reconnect with her in the last couple of years. She was so supportive of our ministry work and would do whatever she could to help. She will be missed!

“ I would just like to let Sue's family know that Ronnie and I thought she was a very special lady. When she and Elden came to visit us in Goldsboro it was at a transitioning time in my life. She was extremely supportive and encouraging to me. That really meant a lot.
