“ We are so sorry for your loss. We feel very fortunate that we had the chance to get to know Marge when she spent a few days with us in Florida after our daughter Karen married Sean. What a special lady! We found we had much in common, especially our shared Catholic faith and of course our granddaughters Avery & Finley. She introduced us to "Little Books" to prepare for Advent, Christmas, Lent & Easter and sent them to us these past several years until I realized this January that I should be ordering them myself with extras to pass along as she did for us. She also traveled to Pennsylvania to care for for Finley when Karen went back to work when Fin was 3 months old. She stayed for 2 months until we arrived to take over for the next 2 months until Fin started daycare. She was a generous, loving person & a wonderful Nana. She will be missed by many especially her family. She will in our hearts & prayers forever.
