“ It's me grandma. Chris Nance your grandson. I remembered how last year when Greg and I came to see you after what seemed like an eternity...how we picked up the conversation we'd always had with you. You would tell us how much you loved grandpa Chubby, and my father. That not a day would go by that you didn't think of them and long to see them again. I'm sure your holding their hands as I pour out my heart to you. I to think of you and them daily. And the rest of my family as well. I will always remember everything you ever taught me, every kind thing you did for me. I remember every visit, every detail of second Id spend with you, as I would often wonder when will be the next time I'd get to see you. Please give gradpa Chubby, my daddy, fuzzy, and poochy a pat on the head and a kiss on the nose ( one for each...Nance humor) I love you grandma rest in peace.
