“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Gabriel. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org if you want to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ These past few days have been really hard on me and my family but I think now I'm able to make a post about this without getting to upset even though I'm still heartbroken over this. I just got back from the Memorial Service for my amazing Great Grandmother a few hours ago. I still can't believe you went to heaven a few days ago. I'm so thankful I was able to talk to you one last time on the phone, not knowing it would be the last time and day I would have with you and to tell you I love you. (Also I never really talk on the phone normally I text message) so I was really thankful I did that. You will always be in my thoughts but mostly in my heart? I love you always Great Grandmom. We all were so blessed to of gotten to know you over all these years in our lives. You really were such a beautiful Mom, Grandmother and Great Grandmom to us. I learned so much from you but most of all how you were such a strong and amazing person to many of us. We all really miss you and love you so much!! We will never forget you and the legacy of your life I'm sure will live on from days to come. I also know now that I will always have an angel looking over me with Jesus by your side. I really never have sang before in front of a room full of people or even my family (I only sing like in the shower or jamming to the radio when I'm in the car as us all teens and young adults all do this I'm sure!) I think honestly tonight I sang the song 'I can only imagine' with my mom as well. for Jesus and of course only for YOU! Thank you for always loving me and being apart of my life. I really don't remember a time you were never there. I have such amazing memories and alot of funny ones too! You always made me laugh when I was with you and Granddaddy too of course! Everytime I went to see you at your beautiful home not far from us it will always be a bittersweet memory. I love you so much GGMom your forever in my heart. (this was a picture of us and I thought it would go perfect with this post)
All my love, Liana
