“ Margie smiled readily, spoke warmly, and cared deeply about family and friends. She nurtured and supported people, just as she nurtured her plants and flowers, helping them grow full, strong, and lovely. She was a beautiful and loving person. She was a wonderful friend. It was a joy and a privilege to know her.

It is hard to think of Margie without smiling because SHE brought such JOY to everyone around her. She had a really special way of offering delight to all in her midst. How wonderful to know that she is now experiencing sheer and absolute delight in the presence of her Savior Jesus Christ. Surely Heaven has an extra sparkle now that she is there. May God Bless Margie
