“ Aunt Rie, my loving aunt and Godmother. You were such an integral part of my childhood, whether it was spending time in Buffalo or being with you at the cottage. I can't imagine growing up without you! We would've rather kept you here with us but God had other plans. I pray you are at peace now, pain free, breathing easily and spending time with your parents and brothers, lightning up heaven with your beautiful smile. It's not going to be easy, going on without you, but somehow we must until we meet again. With love and tears, K.
