

Marie Haught

March 5, 1929 - November 4, 2023

Marie Koltas Haught, of Mooresville, NC, formerly of Girard, PA, passed away on Saturday, November 4, 2023, at Trinity Oaks, Salisbury. Born March 5, 1929, in Mala Poloma, Czechoslovakia, she was a daughter of the late Stefan and Mary (Valko) Koltas.

As a young girl, Marie lived in Czechoslovakia during the German invasion and overthrow of the Czechoslovakian government. She attended school at the time Germans attempted to teach the Nazi traditions to the students. Her mother, Mary, was born in Ohio, and in 1939 following the German invasion wanted to return to the United States. Her uncle, John Douglas, lived on Crane Road in Cranesville, PA, and owned a small store there. He sponsored Marie's mother to come to the United States and Marie was able to travel along, later becoming a United States citizen in 1951.

She graduated from Albion High School and subsequently the Ora Jean Beauty Academy in Erie. She was a hairdresser at her own beauty salon, "Marie's Beauty Shop". She had worked for many years at the Wallace C. Mulligan Funeral Home and the Bruce Hicks Funeral Home in Girard. She also worked for many years at Pleasant Ridge Manor. Following her retirement, she worked in the real estate field for Jim Borland Real Estate in Girard. She was a member of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Albion and also was a member of the Girard Area Planning Board. She was a District County Committee Woman for the Republican Party for many years and chaired that office for two years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert J. Haught, whom she married June 2nd, 1962, in Girard; and son-in-law, Robert Gido.

She is survived by a daughter, Susan H. Gido, of Mooresville, NC; son, Douglas F. Adams and wife, Jo; of Huntersville, NC; four grandchildren, Jessica and Justin Adams (Chantee), Hayden Gido, all of North Carolina and Dylan Gido, of Kingwood, WV; three great grandchildren, Peyton and Carson Adams and Everett Kapka.

A private service for immediate family will be held at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, NC, followed by interment at Knight of Pythias Cemetery, Salem, WV.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Albion, PA or Friends of NC Accessible Books and Library Services. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, NC, is serving the family of Mrs. Haught. Condolences may be made to the Haught family at www.cavin-cook.com.

Tribute Wall

RM

“ I remember many conversations with Marie. I remember when she met her best friend out in the bistro and from that day on, they shared suckers and sat and talked. The day he passed, we all knew she was lost. Marie was and is a wonderful woman. She will for sure be missed. I'm grateful for her being a part of my life.

Rhiannon Miller - November 10, 2023 at 06:20 PM

GG

“ Sincerest Sympathy regarding the loss of a very beautiful family member and friend. She will be missed!

George and Judy gido - November 06, 2023 at 06:04 PM

SE

“ Doug and Susie, I am truly sorry to hear of your moms' passing. Many fond memories of spending time at your home, just hanging out or to get my hair cut! You all were wonderful neighbors and will never be forgotten! Your Grandmother Koltas was a dear sweet lady too. Deepest sympathy to you both and your family. Much love to all! Suzy Munro Exline

Sue Munro Exline - November 05, 2023 at 08:20 PM

CH

“ Susie, I remember meeting and talking with your mother when we were neighbors on Catawba Island. Extending my deepest sympathy to you and your family at the loss of this precious lady.
Charlene McNeill

charlene - November 05, 2023 at 07:25 PM