“ I knew Mark approximately 20 years. He was a kind loving soul-- every time I saw him we connected like brothers--we easily could have been, we were both born the same year. I was blessed in his having allowed me to care for him. I was deeply saddened when he told me that he had cancer and it had spread. My prayer during his life, and now, is the same. Lord, watch over Mark and his family. There are no disabilities in heaven, only abilities, and I know Mark is there, playing. Lord, I pray that you give comfort to Mark's family and show them your love. RIP my dear friend and brother, Mark.
