“ Lisette, I am so saddened to read of Mark's passing. I worked with him in Florida as a trader. May you and your family find comfort in his loving memory.

“ I talked to Mark a few years ago before my surgery. I was on Chuck Missler's website, entered my prayer request and Nancy Missler responded and connected me to Mark. I believe he was having the same problem I was having. He encouraged me. In spite of what he was going through, which I didn't know, he still encouraged me. Wow. Thank you Jesus for Mark.

“ All of you Misslers are an integral part of my childhood memories. So many shared experiences over the years. And Mark, most of all, riding our horses at Coto, hanging out on the boat at the Balboa Bay Club. I'm thankful for our ultimate heavenly reunion. Lisa and Mechelle, my heart aches for you so much, and Chuck, it's just so hard to imagine, even with our eternal perspective. And Mark's wife and son, I wish you all comfort in your grief.

“ Our prayers and deepest, heartfelt sympathies for Mark's wife and son and all the Missler family, too. As difficult as it is to think about Mark not being here with us anymore, I cannot help but wonder about the excitement he must have felt as he walked into the Kingdom with Nancy there to greet and welcome him. I can imagine nothing but the brightest of lights and the glowing smile on Nancy's face as Mark took his first steps into the awesome and amazing glory of Heaven. We all continue to miss Nancy, and now Mark too, but we should feel more than assured that they are now with God, our Heavenly Father who is NOTHING BUT light and glorious all-encompassing love. Rest in beautiful and wonderful peace Nancy & Mark. We love you both so very much! Love always, Janis & John
