

Mark Reza Mosayebi

May 21, 1969 - March 17, 2025

Mark Reza Mosayebi, 55, of Davidson, NC, passed away on March 17, 2025.

Mark was born on May 21, 1969, to Mary Russel and Mohammed Mosayebi in Houston, TX. After high school, he went on to pursue his dream of bowling. After many years of hard work, dedication, and devotion to his love of bowling, Mark accomplished many great wins, including 1 PBA National Tour title and 11 Regional titles.

After many great years of bowling, Mark joined the sales force at Lake Norman Chrysler Jeep Dodge and Ram in 2001, where he worked in numerous roles and committed himself to excellence. Mark loved sales, adored his customers, and enjoyed making perfect strangers his friends.

In 2010, Mark married Amy Mosayebi and went on to have the greatest love of his life, Mason. To say he loved his family is an understatement. Mark lived and breathed for them. He loved teaching his son about bowling and golf, another one of Mark's many talents. His favorite place to visit with his family was the beach every summer.

Mark was predeceased by his mother, Mary Russel. He is survived by his wife, Amy; son, Mason; sister, Stephanie Mosayebi; and mother and father-in-law, Bill and Lisa Hazlewood.

A graveside will be held at Evergreen Cemetery, Charlotte on March 25, 2025, at 10 AM.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville is proudly serving the Mosayebi family.
