“ Ashlee was the silliest, most fun friend I had growing up. I have many fond memories tied to her- from Mr. Bill trying to teach us how to surf to sharing bags of pumpkin seeds and cups of crushed ice at the ball field while our brothers played baseball. No matter what we were doing, it was always a blast and we were constantly laughing! I will never forget Ashlee trying to talk me into taking a bite of a raw onion that she had soaked in vinegar and was eating like an apple. She was laughing so hard at my disgusted face and bewildered eyes- tears were rolling down her cheeks. She claimed it was from laughing, I still blame the onion! Many thoughts and prayers for Mrs. Lisa, Guy, and family, from everyone who was fondly "Long Beach." Much love!!

“ Ashlee..it has been years since we have seen each other but feels like yesterday when we were both sitting in your bedroom crying because we were gonna miss each other because you were moving to Concord, NC with your family from N.W. 23rd Street in Oak Island..we were in the 7th grade. Time flies and we both are mothers now but you have always remained in my heart as my best friend, someone I could talk to and laugh with for hours..your family became a family to me...your home became a place to just laugh and be happy with your beautiful mother! It breaks my heart to hear you have left us all so soon to be with our heavenly father but he needs you now...perhaps to keep your dad in line up there in heaven..only GOD knows..lol. I love you Ashlee...I love your sweet beautiful family. I will always keep you locked in my heart and will continue to pray and ask GOD to have you watch over me until we meet again. Rest in peace beautiful lady..I love you, FLY HIGH!
