

Marsha Ann Cashion

November 3, 1956 - March 26, 2026

Marsha Rodgers Cashion, of Cornelius, North Carolina, passed on to her heavenly home on March 26, 2026, at the age of 69. She leaves behind a legacy of love, hard work, and deep devotion to her family and friends.

Marsha is survived by her husband, Pat; her brother and sister-in-law, Buddy and Sue Rodgers; her sons and daughters-in-law, Christopher and Elizabeth, and Kevin and Abby; and her beloved grandchildren, Jack, Ruby, Emerson, and Miller. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and George Rodgers.

She was born on November 3, 1956, in Mooresville, North Carolina, to George and Ruth Rodgers. From an early age, she experienced profound loss. Challenges that would shape her life in many ways. Yet, despite these hardships, she carried a remarkable light within her that never dimmed. A humble servant, Marsha lived her life each day as an expression of her faith, quietly and faithfully loving and caring for those around her.

Marsha graduated from Mooresville High School in 1975 and from Appalachian State University in 1979. She met the love of her life, Pat, while working as a tournament scorekeeper at the Mooresville Golf Course. They were married in 1980 and celebrated 45 years of marriage this past November. She began her career as a schoolteacher before dedicating 34 years of service to the YMCA.

Her life was marked by a deep commitment to serving others. Over the years, she volunteered with hospice, offering comfort and compassion to individuals and families in their most difficult moments. She was also an active member of "The 12 Ordinary Women," a group devoted to gathering resources to bless the under-resourced in their community. Through these acts of service, she faithfully lived out her calling to love others well.

Nothing brought her greater happiness than being surrounded by those she loved. Whether with friends or family, she was most at home in the presence of others. As a proud and devoted "Nana" to her four grandchildren, she found her greatest joy in being with them and watching them grow. She was a true gatherer of people and a constant champion of those she loved, giving freely of her time, her resources, and her boundless love. She found joy in life's simplest and most beautiful moments, feeling most alive with her toes in the sand, fresh mountain air in her lungs, or browsing the aisles of Goodwill.

Anyone who met Marsha was forever changed. She touched thousands of lives with her kindness and compassion. While her passing leaves an emptiness in the lives she touched, we rejoice in knowing that she is home.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, March 31st from 6:00-7:30 PM at Storyhill Church in Davidson. At 7:30 PM, we will open the floor for anyone who would like to share their favorite memories of Marsha and have light refreshments. A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, April 1st at 12:00 PM at Storyhill Church. A brief visitation will take place prior to the service, beginning at 11:00 AM. A graveside service will follow on Wednesday at 2:00 PM at Glenwood Memorial Park, immediately after the funeral service.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Cashion family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

Parking Information for Wednesday:

There is no parking available at the church for Wednesday's service. Limited street parking is available nearby, but primary parking will be at Lake Norman YMCA. Shuttles will run to and from the church from 10:30 AM to 1:30 PM.

Parking will be available at the church for Tuesday evening's visitation.

“ Marsha was genuine, it was felt the second you met her. She had a great sense of humor and a great laugh to match. Marsha was a truly wonderful person, with a big heart, and a sweet soul. She made a positive impact on people's lives and will forever live in our hearts. My heartfelt condolences to the Cashion family.

“ Marsha is loved by SO many! I have never met anyone who radiated kindness like Marsha. Her presence (and that smile) brought a sense of calm to the room as she entered! Those who had the honor of knowing her were truly blessed. When I spent time with Marsha, I felt like the world slowed down, and I could feel the calm. My heart goes out to Pat, Chris, Kevin, and their families, and I pray they find peace and comfort in the many memories they shared with her. She is an amazing wife and mom!

“ I am so sorry to hear the news that Marsha had passed away. I don't handle this type of news well and I tend to want to crawl under a rock. My condolences and prayers go out to Pat and her entire family.

I'm surprised that my memories of our friendship are as strong as they are since I moved away from Mooresville about 54 years ago (in the 9th grade). Some seem like yesterday. Fortunately, I was able to see her and talk briefly at the MHS reunion back in October. She was always very nice and caring to me and also to others. She is as special as they get. I was hoping to see more of her. She will be missed.

“ Marsha was a dear friend of Maria and I, as well as the entire family of Mt Zion UNC. She and I worked many years with Community Service and, all one had to do was to say they were in need and there she was!

What a sweet person and God is the Benefactor since she was such a devoted Christian. I'm sure she has been assigned (or volunteered for) something special that God was planning for her!!!
Gonna miss you, our dear friend! Maria & Rick Wilson

“ Marsha and Buddy's father died young and my father died a few years later and our families grew apart. Her family became closer to her mother's while our family became closer to my mother's. In recent years she has reached out to out to us and brought us closer. I only wish we had more time. She truly was a beautiful individual.

“ Marsha was at the center of the annual reunions of the descendants of our great-grandparents, John Henry Hamilton Mills and Emma Brawley Mills. In recent years, those reunions have brought close to 100 cousins and their families together to both remember and meet people of all ages whose bloodlines touch each other. Marsha's deep love for our families drew people together in wonderful ways. Her gifts of hospitality and preserving family ties will be deeply missed.
