“ Our deepest sympathies for the loss of a beautiful Southern Lady, Martha. Since I was a young girl I have always admired Martha's beauty and gentle words and have learned that a Christian lady can defiantly teach others in a gentle way to know about our Savior We all will miss her and know she has been called to heaven to join the other angels in Grace, Glory and with Love!Ronnie & Terry Honeycutt

“ Dear Jim and Family, I am very sorry for your loss and am empathetic to what you are going through. I will also say that having been through this myself that the joy of knowing your dear mother is with the Lord and one day you all will see her again will slowly replace the loss you feel now. I will keep you all in my prayers for Christ's peace and comfort to be with you.May God bless you all.
