“ Bobby, I am so sorry to hear of Martha's passing. You know that Martha and I were best friends for many years: slumber parties, lost of laughing and crying, sharing special moments in each other's lives. She was truly a special lady and will be truly missed. I pray that God will help you and your family throughout this time and through years to come. You know my Mike has been gone for 16 years, and I still miss him very much. Love to you.

“ I haven't known Martha very long, but that sweet face and smile captured my heart. I will miss her stopping by the Good News Sunday School classroom on the way in to church. We had the same conversation every Sunday. I would tell her, "I love you," and she would say, "I love you too, you make me laugh!"
