“ Ray will surely be missed. A lot of good memories made with Ray up at the hunting cabin on Table Rock Mountain. Guess Ray was last of the original guys of the Bell Hunt Club. I think they started hunting there in the late 60's. Ray I'll miss you. Just an uncle of mine not by blood but by choice...

“ We met in our first few days of moving here. His wife had dropped off produce from their garden and left their phone number. Before she had time to get home I called that number and never forgot it. In three octaves above my normal voice I asked Ray if he'd come help me catch a snake in my house. He came and as he caught hold of it it bit him. "Oh, that's nothing more than a briar stick to me" Ever since that day in 1994 he has always been there for us in any way he could. Beautiful neighbor and friend. You are missed. RIP
