“What a tremendous legacy she leaves behind in her children, grandchildren, etc. Mary was no stranger to hard work and often worked circles around me, all the while chatting with everyone in the room. A friend to all, a gracious hostess and above all- a lady. She made everyone smile with her endless stories, her dancing, her singing- and joy of life! Mary loved God. Mary loved her family. I don't believe I ever had a conversation with her that she didn't mention one of her children. That will always be her favorite role. How her eyes lit up to see a baby or small child. I remember her seeing a dog and Mary saying, "come see your Mammaw!" I'm blessed to be an honorary "Tuty Baby". To know her was to love her. Even when that temper got the best of her! What a spitfire! Even when she told that story for the millionth time. Even when she was telling you "you're doing it wrong!" What a class act. We will miss her, but those children of her's have a Mama sized hole in their hearts right now. We need to wrap the entire Brown family in our arms and in our prayers. Grief is the price we pay for love. With so much love will come so much grief. We're here for you. We love yall.

“Gary, I am so sorry to read of your family's loss. While I did not know your mom, she must have been a special person--whose mother isn't? I hope Our Lord is watching over the Brown children in this time of grief. Mike Shinn
