“ Mary was a nice person who we really didn't get to visit with but once, even though we lived next door. We only met daughter Heather, so Heather we're sorry for your loss. Her health issues seemed extreme, so perhaps she's at a better place. Hadelers.

“ Mary was a great woman.... wife, mother, grandmother, & friend. I met her through Amy in 2000 when Amy & I worked together & I always loved her warm & loving personality. I know she endured pain & personal heartache in the past few years & we kept talking about getting together & it didn't happen & I so regret that! Her light will always shine in her children & grandchildren...& she's happily with Nathan whom she missed so much. Love to you all & I hope I can come to her service. She deserves the best!!!

“ Mary was my friend. May God rest her sweet soul. I remember the first time I met Mary. She was my neighbor and was sitting on the swing outside after being in the hospital. I was hesitate to go over to meet her but the Lord told me to go and make friends with her. So I did and it was a wonderful visit. From that day our friendship grew into great friends. We talked and shared out stories about our life. In our conversations the subject of religion came up and we shared our beliefs without any affense to either. I was honored to have God to let His light shine thru me for Mary to see. After several years of sharing God’s word with her, I believe Mary is resting in Gods presence. We spent a lot of time together going places and doing things that she loved. I always wanted to make her happy and see her smile. I will deeply miss her but I have all our memories to cling to. “ My most fondest memory with Mary was our trip to Key West together. We took a boat from Amy's house when she lived in Fl., we shopped, bought matching toe rings, and drank alot. On the day we were leaving, we checked out of our room, and sat by the pool for the day until the boat came to take us back to Amys. we walked to the pier where we would catch the boat, and had lunch and more drinks, we waited and drank some more and waited, finally we called Amy and she told us the boat isn't coming because of bad weather, so I'm panicked because it's not easy to find a room in Key West, so pretty drunk by now we go back to the hotel and I start telling the desk man of our dilemma and also started crying and he said it's ok I'll take care of you two, and gives us a suite facing the sunset square. An all glass shower, a little balcony, just awesome, all for the same price that we paid for our little bungalow room. It was just such a beautiful finish to such a fun filled, happy, memory we made together.
