“ We don't get a newspaper anymore nor does the church send us emails, though I am still a member. So I didn't hear about Kitty until today. I know she will be missed, and I think she was the last of her generation except for Lib Knox, who turned 100 in July. But, as my Dad always said, she probably had her bags packed and was ready for the good Lord to take her home. Love to you all. Cathy Pierce

“ Richard, it was always such a blessing to sit behind your parents at church on Sunday, and visit with them. A beautiful and special couple! Sending our love to your family.
