“ Dear Ebert Family ~

The Whitlow's have lived either beside, across, or "just down the road" from you for about 40 years. Over the years Mrs. Mae has always indulged my children (and me:) by purchasing Girl Scout cookies, Boy Scout popcorn, high school band candy or fruit whether she really wanted/needed it or not.. Likewise, she got to see all three of my children grow into adulthood from infancy and never failed to asked about them. If a "perfect neighbor" list existed I've no doubt the Eberts would be at the top. We will all miss Mrs. Mae. To me she and George were always the anchors of our neighborhood.

I, along with the rest of the Whitlow family convey our sympathy, condolences, and blessings to you all.
