“ I was Mary's caregiver on October 1st, just for one shift. That one shift I knew her I could tell she definitely knew her Lord. I stayed up all night on third shift reading her study books on the Bible. She was such a sweet and kind lady. I'm praying for all of the family members and her friends.

“ My great aunt Mary will always be an inspiration to me. I will remember visiting her all through my childhood. There was always good food on the table and usually a new litter of kittens on the porch. My deepest sympathy to this sweet family.
